

Simple Science
for Kids:
Fold Mountains

Can you make a mountain
out of towels?

A fun mess free color mixing activity
VOLCANO ERUPTION
in a Ziploc Bag

Can you use shaving foam to practice writing?

Can you make a shape pizza?

Can you use a sandwich bag and some shower gel to make a sensory gel pad?

English

- Following instructions i.e. Find table, toy, or touch your toes.
- Mark making – pens/ felts etc and paper, fingers in flour on foil, manipulating playdough or bread dough.
- Reading - read stories to children from books. Watch stories on you tube.

Maths

- Sorting cutlery, socks, objects according to size, colour.
- Matching objects one to one.
- Sharing out objects i.e. one cup each, two books each.
- Counting small numbers of objects.

Science

- Freeze items/ sweets in ice and let learners break and melt the ice to find what's inside.
- Investigate a torch and other lights in a darkened room. Play with shadows.
- Make sensory bottles sealed with oil, water, food colouring and mini objects like toys or cheerios.

Learning at Home

Computing/ DT/ FT

- Investigate ingredients and help make meals.
- Use sensory based apps and Purple mash activities on tablets.
- Use cause and effect resource on priory woods website.

Healthy Growth/ PSHE/ PE

- Use pictures or drawings of expressions. Demonstrate them to learner and ask to find the matching expression.
- Work on self-help skills – dressing skills, helping with meals and laying out the table, helping with changing,
- Ensure time in the garden - Play ball games in the garden or use a trampoline.

Art/ Music/ Humanities

- Make instruments out of pans, spoons, rice in kitchen rolls, etc.
- Use paint and
- Cutting skills using scissors with help to snip different pieces of paper.
- Watch images of the world to music on you tube.